Director: Tron Sutton

Summary: Richard Rodgers entered his seventh decade of writing for the theatre with this fresh retelling of the Biblical story of Noah. It seems that the building of the ark was only the first of Noah's many daunting challenges in a journey that wasn't always smooth sailing. By turns inspirational and hilarious, Two by Two demonstrates that being chosen by God for great things does not necessarily simplify the daily demands on a father and husband. It's good fun from The Good Book... and when the land has dried, man and beast alike are invited to go forth and prosper in a bright New World.

About Us: We are the Mid Cities Arts Collective (MAC) and we seek to unite creatives and audiences by telling engaging, family-oriented, redemptive stories on the stage. We desire to build a community theater known for high quality, high collaboration, and high spirits. We know you have similar values to our own, which are:

- Optimism is cool. Celebrating uplifting stories through optimism and engagement.
- Community is life. People of varied backgrounds and generations together for personal engagement.
- Everyone is welcome. We are collaborative, accessible, and inclusive to all.
- The Play's the Thing. We value the fun and joy of artistic expression.
